Planning : The People's Perspective

---

Saturday 25th April 2015
10 - 4.30pm Trades Hall, Central Glasgow

Conference Organised by Planning Democracy

---

If you have been or are about to be affected by planning decisions, If you have concerns about the way the Scottish planning system works, If you are a professional interested in seeing an alternative viewpoint to that normally presented at planning conferences, you will be interested in this conference.

At the conference you will hear how well the planning system works for the public, meet other people and exchange experiences of planning join forces with others to create a louder voice for communities in planning work with us to campaign for better planning including an Equal Right of Appeal have an opportunity to have a dialogue with sympathetic professionals attend workshops with experts on a variety of planning topics

Planning Democracy believes there is a relative absence of the public voice in forums where planning is debated and discussed. This conference aims, in particular, to involve individuals and communities in that debate. We welcome everyone including professionals and decision-makers to join us in the less-heard side of the planning story.

£10 Community groups and individuals £20 Professionals
